Overview

Fukuoka University, which was founded in 1934, has grown as a center of education, research, and healthcare and encompasses 9 undergraduate faculties and 10 graduate schools.

Based on Regulations Concerning International Students of Fukuoka University, the selection examinations are provided to international students who are aiming to obtain a bachelor's degree.

The time of enrollment is April. Sufficient Japanese proficiency is required since all classes will be conducted in Japanese.

Admission Policy

We accept applicants from Japan and many other countries who understand our founding philosophy and who exhibit the following characteristics:

1. Applicants who can think carefully and clearly and who wish to live in a way that avoids dogmatism and prejudice.
2. Applicants who exhibit a spirit of even-tempered broadmindedness and who wish to develop skills in a well-balanced way.
3. Applicants who exhibit sincerity and a strong sense of responsibility and who wish to be tenacious in all things.
4. Applicants who take the initiative by embracing new and difficult things.

Refer to our official site for Admission Policies of all departments.
